

There are few things which afford us greater pleasure than sitting down to write a notice of the late deceased. It is a privilege, because we are fully conscious we are conferring a public benefit, and our hearts tell us that by our notice many have been induced to read these notices, and have been made to feel that the deceased was a good man, and that the only way to be a good man is to be a good citizen.

The apprentices have made their report of the apprenticeship in this county, and the county commissioners were in session this week on a Board of Equalization for the purpose of adjusting any complaints that may be made of inequality of assessment.

The last estate of the City of Fort Wayne is appraised at $1,388,360. The city township, exclusive of city, $1,031,262; the aggregate of the remaining townships is $357,098, making the total appraisement of the county, $1,388,360. This is according to the returns of the appraisers, but will at once be raised by the changes made by the Board of Equalization.

The average value of real estate, exclusive of improvements, as reported by the appraisers, in this county, is as follows:

The New Penitentiary.

Gov. Willard visited our city on Wednesday, to make a personal examination of the advantages we offer as a site for the proposed Penitentiary. He remained until Friday evening, when he left on a special train, liberally treated by Mr. Colburn, Vice President of the Toledo & Wabash R.R. for Logansport. While here he carefully examined the proposed site, viewed the whole city and its environs, and made himself thoroughly acquainted with the cost and quality of building materials. He, no doubt, has for transport, and other matters connected with the object of his visit. Without giving any expression to his final determination in the matter, he expressed himself much pleased with the appearance and prospects of our city, and satisfied with the advantages we offer as a location for the penitentiary.

According to his own report he was not received with any public demonstration, but a large number of our citizens called upon him, while his ladies paid their respects to his amiable lady, who accompanied him on the trip. On Thursday evening they met a large party of friends at the hospitable mansion of A. S. Hamilton, Esq., and enjoyed a few hours of pleasant social intercourse with our citizens.

The Governor, of course, did not commit himself on the question of the location of any thing to indicate where his preferences may be. We are, however, fully satisfied he will ratify the selection made by the commissioners. He could not think of disagreeing with them unless some good reason could be found, as it is well established fact that Fort Wayne offers greater advantages than any other place in the State.

The Governor, of course, did not commit himself on the question of the location of any thing to indicate where his preferences may be.

Important Decision by Chief Justice Toney.

The Conciliation Referees, Shreve and Parsons, in a case, and as such are ineligible to the Criminal Courts.

In the case of the State Army, charged with robbing the United States Mail, Judge Toney rendered an important decision in the Circuit Court at Richmond last week. The Judge decides:

1st. That the Constitution of the United States recognizes slaves as persons and as such they are represented in Congress.

2d. That as persons they are, in many instances, at least, subject to certain liabilities, and interested with the rights corresponding to those liabilities, in the same way that other persons are.

3d. That among these liabilities are those which render them amenable to civil and criminal law, and among these rights, is the right of legal protection against personal injury.

4th. That the Constitution of the United States also recognizes slaves as property.

5th—"As property"—just as the rights of the owners, or any other description of property are—"the rights of the owner are entitled to the protection of the law." The rights of the owners of slaves are not put above the rights of the owners of any other species of property. The one has the same source of redress in case of injury opened to them as the other.

The opinion of Judge Toney is clear, positive and of great interest, and will command general attention. We will publish it in full next week.

The Fort Wayne Western Railroad.

The stockholders of this company held their annual meeting at the Rockwell House on Wednesday last, and unanimously re-elected the old board of Directors, consisting of Hon. R. C. Schenck, and H. G. Pennington of Ohio, J. E. Fenn of Illinois, G. W. Safford of New York, and L. S. Buckley, T. Tiger, and S. Webb, of Fort Wayne.

The board met the same evening and organized by electing Hon. R. C. Schenck, President, L. S. Buckley, Vice President, T. Tiger, Secretary, and J. E. Fenn, Treasurer.

The prospect is now quite favorable for an early resumption of work on this important and much needed improvement. Its completion will be a great benefit to the city, and the company are now working eastward to open communication with Cleveland and with the Atlantic & Western local gauge road at a point near Akron. The Illinois American Central (Rockwell) line more than 100 miles graded, and has made arrangements for laying the iron from the existing line at City Mills, from the Chicago & Burlington crossing to the Mississippi River at New Boston.

In the meantime the Fort Wayne Western Company has not been idle. Its indefatigable President has nearly perfected arrangements for securing such aid as will ensure the completion of the work. The favorable condition of its contracting strength, the credit of the road, and we now entertain no doubt that its future success will be a permanent fact.

Change of Time.—Pitts F. W. & Co. Rail.

On and after tomorrow the cars will leave our depot as follows:

For Chicago.—Mail at 1:45 P. M.; Express, 2:30 A. M.; Freight 3:00 A. M.
For Cleveland.—Mail at 1:45 P. M.; Express, 1:07 A. M.; Freight 7:15 A. M.

Chap. Traveling.—Passengers are carried over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago Railroad at the following cheap rates: Fort Wayne to Pittsburgh $2.00; Philadelphia and Baltimore $3.00; New York $4.00; Boston $5.00. To travel at these rates through tickets must be procured at our depot. This is done by taking every body from base and fill up the cars with a steady increase in number of passengers. These tickets are valid for the purpose of the railroad should lose no time, as the price will be doubled before long. We presume the New York routes will make considerable reduction in their rates, but we are not out of the habit of it.

Stomachache on Lake Erie.—The splendid steamer City of Buffalo and Western Metropolitan of the Toledo line, will run daily between Cleveland and Buffalo this season, in connection with the railroads, leaving Cleveland immediately on the arrival of the trains from the south, and reaching Buffalo next morning in time for the connections there. A trip on the lake, and a good night's rest on these floating palaces, will prove an agreeable relaxation to the weary traveler on the dusty railroads, and we should think this line would be liberally patronized. It certainly ought to be.

Rich of Old Times.—In a digging the foundation for a new building on the lot of W. W. Carson, Esq., on Ferry street, west of City, the remains of an old forge were discovered, consisting of a large pile of iron and bricks, with some chains, scraps of iron, and other articles. This was doubtless the blacksmith shop of the original fort built by Mad Anthony Brumfield, which was located on these lots, a few rods south of the site occupied by the new buildings when the fort was rebuilt in 1833.

Our city has been shamefully treated in not postponing the money at General Wayne, by appropriating a portion of the fort ground to erecting a monument thereon. We would suggest the propriety of securing for the purpose these lots of Mr. Carson, before he builds his proposed residence. He liberally offers to sell them for that purpose at a very reasonable rate, and would doubtless contribute something toward the monument, if his proposal be accepted. Who will make a move in the matter?

Frank.—On Monday night last an old frame building on the south west corner of Lafayette and Jefferson streets was burned to the ground. It was occupied by disreputable persons, and has long been an eyesore to the neighborhood, having been mobbed and stoned two or three times previously. No alarm was given; no engines out, and few persons out of the immediate vicinity knew any thing of what was going on. Such lawless acts are much to be deplored, and cast a stigma on the honor of our city. However great a nuisance it might have been, had it been a case of mobbing, it would not have been a disgrace to our city, and should not be commemorated.

The Steamship Snapper, for the benefit of Allen Cook & Laddie Company, on Wednesday evening, was met at the wharf by Governor Willard and his estimable lady being among the guests. The ball was very nicely conducted with plenty of music, and asked fairly for the evening. The ball was a success. The refreshments were abundant and of the best quality, and everything was well got up and managed, rendering it a very pleasant affair to all who participated. The receipts amounted to $120, which will enable the company to pay off all debts remaining from the purchase of their apparatus.

Benning's Convention.—W. M. McKim, Esq., of the Washington Herald, published in Fayette Co., Ohio, in speaking of the approaching editorial convention at Piquette, says that the Fort Wayne Sentinel is an older journal than the Herald, and that the latter is a year the senior of the Sentinel, as far as time is concerned, and we are of the opinion that it is the oldest paper now printed in Northern Indiana.—Goshen Democrat.

A great mistake, Fletcher Esqr. The Sentinel was established by us in 1823. It is 36 years older than the Democrat, and is the oldest paper in Northern Indiana. When we commenced, there were only two papers west of the Mississippi—the South Bend Beacon and the Miami and Putnam American Times at Logansport, both of which were soon after discontinued.

Fear.—On Saturday night last there was quite a heavy frost; but we do not learn that much injury was sustained by the crops in this vicinity. The frost appears to have been general. In Central Ohio, the corn was killed and wheat badly injured. Around Cincinnati the grapes are nearly destroyed, and the gardens and other fields suffered severely. Even as far south as Kentucky, they speak of the frost through Illinois, along the shore of Lake Erie, and in northern and western New York much damage was also done.

Lee Cheam.—Charles F. Rupp has filed up a very neat edition at his confidential and newspaper depot, opposite the public square, where he serves his customers with Lee Cheam of a very superior quality. He has sent as a sample, which was duly and carefully examined, and unanimously pronounced to be the best in the city. He deserves a liberal patronage.

Moore Duane has a few very choice Pine Apples for sale at his reading-room, and generously laid on our table one of the finest we ever ate, for which he has our sincere thanks. His reading room still continues attractive, and is every evening filled with attentive readers, who have been flocking to it, and are delighted with the large and well known and highly appreciated, that we see either ladies or gentlemen, who pass by and stop on a warm day without regretting themselves with a glass of his refreshment.

Weekly State Sentinel.—The nineteenth volume of this sterling democratic journal commenced last week, and its publishers call upon their friends to aid in extending its circulation. It is a very large sheet, contains a general summary of news, literature, and light reading, liberal politics, and under its present management, is a faithful and valuable democratic organ, deserving a general circulation. Every Democrat wishing an independent paper ought to subscribe for it. Terms $1.50 per annum—in all cases strictly in advance.

Garfield is getting to be quite a fashionable style of painting, and when well done it has a very pretty effect. Mr. O. L. Stanley, painter of this city, is certainly a proficient in this difficult art, and executes it in a style that few can equal. He has recently done a job for us which we have never seen excelled in any city we have visited, and we invite those who wish to satisfy themselves of his skill, to call at our residence and judge for themselves. His shop is at the corner of Columbia and Clinton streets, over Edwards' and Miller's shop.
